Dear Reinhold,

Re: Century Citation Club – 100 cites with 10 years of publication for your paper

Congratulations! Your paper “TRPM2: a multifunctional ion channel for calcium signalling” published in The Journal of Physiology in 2011 was recently cited for the 100th time within 10 years of publication. The Journal of Physiology is honouring authors whose papers achieve this distinction by including the details of the paper on our Century Citation Club web page.
